

Waiver of Liability for Alamo City Furry Invasion

COVID-19 Risk Information

The Alamo City Furry Invasion (ACFI) event held by A+ King Services & Entertainment, LLC has notified attendees and participants of covid policies consistent with CDC guidelines. All participants (staff, volunteers, partners and attendee alike) are encouraged to practice safe and healthy hand hygiene, social distancing and wear face coverings to reduce the risk of being exposed to Covid-19. Adherence to these rules can and will reduce the risk of exposure, however, the risk of serious illness, disability and even death still exists. Due to Covid-19 having these serious risks combined with its extremely contagious nature and its spread from person-to-person contact, the ACFI has put measures in place to help reduce the spread, but the ACFI cannot guarantee that its participants (staff, volunteers, partners and attendee alike) of the event will not become infected and/or contract Covid-19.
